COVID-19 has upended work for everyone, with most people working from home – if at all. But there are solutions that can keep your business moving, and we want to help you succeed.

Register for our live webinar on April 8, presented by myself and my counterpart in the Mid-Central region, Jeff McClendon. We'll share best practices to help you transition to virtually selling and servicing insurance:

- Learn best practices for prospecting and marketing virtually to your client lists
- Identify and learn more about which Assurity tools can best help you close sales, whether it is our custom product quoters, tele-apps, or e-apps.
- Find out how to get your customers the policy information they need or answers to questions they have.

If you have any questions, reach out – I'm here to help make the transition as seamless as possible
